Mency continues to display its firmer tone, as is consistent with expanded trade activity. It is considered that the demands incidental to the letter have caused the withdrawal of funds from electricities and that this has been a leading factor in the decline of bond prices. The reaction in the new treasury if the percent bonds to 39 is regarded as having been due to the retreat of speculators who applied for the bond in the hope that the latter would sell quickly at a premium. An over-extended speculator position is also thought to have been a factor in the week's decline in stocks.

Teday and Tuceday.

The Cowboy and the Lady, which is the feature attraction at the Broadway for today and Tuceday, boasts of having two fine stars, Mary Miles Minter and Tom Moore, in the story by Clyde Pitch, one of America's greatest dramatists. The story is a new angle as the boundless west. The mingling of modely with the rugged elemental charagters of the plains and hills. It is filled with unusual situations, spiende comedy, great love interest and a dramatic and climatic ending, ins Minter plays a role vastly different from any previous characters. Tom Moore's attractive personality has spiended opportunity in this and he rises superior to all of his past performances.

Other subjects include a Hathroom Boy comedy called Game Birde and an up to date nows.

At the Streed.

The story of Ming Toy, the Chinese Birl, is simple enough. Her father is Shanghai thought to sell her as a wife-Mave on the Love Boat, Billy Benson, an American, helped her escape to America. In Chinatown, San Francison, the was admired by Charlie Yong, 'tip-gifty Chinaman,' but on the day Charlie was to have taken her Billy Benson returned. There is more after that, still simple, still fascinating But the thing which has made East is West world fanicus as a play is not its story, but the remarkable personality of Ming Toy, Toy.

Constance Talmadge, presenting East is West on the screen as the greatest schleyement of her career, has imbusi that role with a vivacity, a verve, a touch of happiness and a quality of pathos that is irresistible. She sweeps from Shanghai to San Francisco, strong in her love for Billy Benson, eager to prove herself at home among the whites, to learn their habits. It is unfortunate that the only place where she can observe those customs is at Kelly's dance hall, which is all that its name, implies; so that Ming Toy's first achievements are the gum habit, the shirmany, the short skirt and a heautiful flow of slang. Her use of all these provides some of the high spots of the production both in humor and in drames.

Broadway Rose, which yesterday opened at the Breed theatre, is sure is appeal to those who found pleasure in Miss Murray's recent productions, and cook! Alley and Fascination, and that movies, has an interesting story giving her a role which afform every opportunity for the unusual ability which has made her the unusual ability which has made her recent pletures a joy to see. In the present picture she is a country girl who has won the favor of Broadway by her ability as a dancer. She loves flight Thompson, the son of wealthy Fifth avenue parents who are bitterly opposed to his infatuation. Seeking only happiness for herself and the manufaction of the comments to a secret marriage in order to avoid an open break between Hugh and his family. But they discover the facts, and are relentices in between Hugh and his family. But they discover the facts, and are relentiess in the determination that their son's life shall not be ruined by such an alliance. The complications which ensue bring Resallie very near to disaster, but in the and she finds real happiness.

Broadway Rose is a Tiffany production directed by Robert Z. Leonard. The story and scenario are by Edmund Goulding, and the photography by Oliver T. Marsh and the art settings by Charless Cadwaider.

Broadway Rose will be the feature again today and tomorrow at the Broad and other pictures on the bill include the Pathe. News and an Educations; comedy, a

The Mascot which comes to the Brondway theatre on Wednesday night New 1 with Helena Morrill in the leading role is one of the season's real hit. The muste by Edmond Audran is far superior to that of the average mustal show. The numbers include Gobble, Come My Beauty Quick a Little Kiss, Wise Men of All Ages. The Ourang-Outang and a dozen others.

Little Kiss, Wise Men of All Ages. The Ourang-Outang and a dozen others. The Diet differs from the average musical comedy plot inasmuch as it is really something tangible and carries the comedy through a succession of anyming and interesting situations which keep the audience in laughter and wonder as to the outcome, in short it has a real plot.

Helena orrill is one of America's most popular light opera stars. He Nadina in The Chocolate Soldier has rever been surpassed and her Princess Pat delighted theatregoers for two seasons. As Bettina, the Mascot, she is making her greatest success and is surrounded by a great cast of singers and comedians including Edward Orchard. Ann Stewart, Ernest Miller, Robert Sawyer, Shirley Foster, Martin Albright, Nahoy Berton and Harry Murray as well as the daintiest chorus that ever strayed from Broadway.

Not only in The Mascot the season's prontounced success, but it is also heralded as the forerunner of a higher class of numbers of the season's prontounced success, but it is also heralded as the forerunner of a higher class of numbers of a higher class of numbers wherein good imusic with good singers good comedy with good comedians is at important as a claborate stage settlings.
